Issues of Conscience

The agenda of the Synod Assembly will allow for individuals to voice issues of conscience and concern. Each person speaking shall be allowed up to two minutes to address the assembly. There shall be no response to any speaker or discussion of any issue following the presentations.

Any person who is certified as a voting member of the Synod Assembly may present an issue of conscience or concern. Each person desiring to voice a concern must submit the following to the Floor Manager by 10:00 a.m. on Saturday. This can be done via a private message using the chat feature of Zoom.

- Name
- Congregation
- Contact information
- Statement of subject matter to Floor Manager by 10:00 a.m. on Saturday committee chair by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, June 7, 2019 by leaving a message (with contact information) in the assembly office.

Amending Resolutions

During the presentation and discussion of resolutions, voting members may propose amendments. To do so, the voting member must send a message to the Floor Manager. The message should initiate with the term “amend” followed by the proposed amendment. The floor manager will alert the assembly chair who at the appropriate time ask the voting member to turn on their camera, unmute and present their amendment.
